Clergymen Condemn Apartment House Life

Ministers Assert Modern Existence Is Destructive · of Home Influences and Cheapens Social Contact-Bad for the Children.

The declaration that "The modern the home, and if we lose this we will lose a national asset. Bishop Edwin H, Hughes, of the Methodist Episcopal Church, a few days ago as aroused much interest in Washington.

"I believe that the modern apartment in the public schools. The teachers of the public schools will measure up well to the cleray in moral and even in appropriate the public schools. The schools are the public schools. The schools are the public schools will measure up well to the cleray in moral and even in appropriate the public schools.

"It is simply sacrificed,"
"It is simply sacrificing many of the plain, simple, high ideals of the American home on the attar of economy, convenience, and continuctalism.

One of the anddert observations is a failed without a childhood, and this is the case with the child whose outlook is through an apartment house."

After declaring that the modern apartment house is a tragedy. Bishop Hughes, in a sermon at Winnes, Ind., a few days ago, said:
"In the new apartment system there is a common dising-foom, with prepared food brought up in trays from a common diction. To maintain a home there must be a separateness. The social unit is be

MOTHER-IN-LAW HELD TO BLAME

G. W. Kirkman Says Bride Is Kept from Him by Her Mother-Both

New York. Sept. 1.—Too much mother-in-law" is the charge hirried at Mrs. Mary Belle Stock, prominent society woman of Philadelphia by her son-in-law, George W. Kirkman, a prosperous young real estate operator of Interlaken, N. J. Kirkman's besutiful and weathly twenty-gear-olds bride, Helen Louise Steck-Dodge-Kirkman, deserted him three days after their marriage and the husband declares she is being kept from him by her mother. Mrs. Stock.

Baleful charges of conspiracy between Kirkman and a young woman whom he introduced as his sister, but who proved to be no relative, together with accurations that Kirkman had falsified his financial and sucial position to win the beautiful divorces were made by Mrs. Stock to the correspondent of The Wash-Inston Hersitt.

To-day charged his wife is a virtual prisoner in the apartments of Mrs. Stock, and said that he had telephoned every hour ful days in an attempt merely toget a word to his wife, but that the mother-in-law always answered the telephone. Friends of the young couple believe, however, that behind all the warp for the separation and the remaining away from her husband of the dashing young society put of London. New York, and Philadelphia. This reason, however, is a mystery to the most intimate friends of both parties to the controverse.
